

ygsshow

The image features a stylized tree with a yellow umbrella on top, set against a background of vertical rain lines. The tree is positioned in the lower half of the frame, and the umbrella is at the top. The rain lines are vertical and extend from the umbrella down to the tree. The overall color palette is muted, with shades of brown, tan, and yellow.

Aug. 22 - Aug. 23 Cobo Arena

John Anderson

John Anderson is the Scottish great-horned who co-founded Yes in 1968. His songs are catchy and cerebral. As a composer with warring thoughts, this unique talent of musical and word communications is his contribution to Yes songs. He plays many different instruments as displayed on his solo LP "Lines of Handlines". On stage he occupies front and center position as lead singer.

Chris Squire

Chris Squire is the bass guitar player of Yes. He was the co-founder of the group who always took an experimental and creative approach to music. His contributions ("Fish" & "Thriller") are a distinctive trademark of Yes music. Chris takes an artistic, low style approach to the bass guitar. His creative effort resulted the Yes efforts in "Fish Out of Water".

